Kyle Warren	Lots of great music in the way of books and CDs available from Kyle's shop. I even feature on the 'Tunez' album playing piano. A good friend of mine.
Ross Ainslie	A protégé of the late Gordon Duncan, Ross Ainslie is contributing to the tradition in many ways. He is innovative and extremely talented.
Assynt	An upcoming band on the Scottish folk music scene with bagpipes heavily featured. David Shedden is the piper and is a good friend of mine. Check these guys out for some real foot tapping music.
Craig Muirhead	Buy my own collections, 'Arranged' and '30 Exactly' together and as a member of the Piping Club, you can have them both for £22.50.
Robbie Maclsaac	Robbie is a great young player with an incredible mind. I was lucky enough to teach him at Strathallan and in his time there, he invented an amazing new piece of equipment. This is now being manufactured by McCallum Bagpipes.
